The next political night prayer is at the Cotteridge Church on Sunday 4th December.

Come to meet and share refreshments from 7:00pm.

Worship begins around 7:30 with prayer and music, readings and stillness, and time to listen to one another.

Reflections and conversation will be stimulated and guided by our guest Keith Hebden, Director of the Urban Theology Unit and author of the recently-published Re-enchanting the Activist: Spirituality and Social Change.

We also welcome Christian Aid partner, Nyolo Tabu Honorine, who will bring insights from her life in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

The political night prayer follows in the tradition of Dorothée Soelle and others who organised the Politisches Nachtgebet in Cologne from 1968 to 1972. It is a simple idea, where worship is the context for unfettered thinking and praying, listening and speaking about our political life together, and how to think and live it as Christian people. We hope this will be another place for nurturing friendship and alliances in our various commitments to living faith in public.

The theme of this next meeting, in light of the UK referendum, US elections, and the persistence of domestic and international fragmentation, is interdependence.

For directions to the church, click this link:

Quaker friends at the Cotteridge Meeting House are kindly opening their car park on Linden Road on Sunday evening.