KEYHOLDER PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Why have I been given a Privacy Notice?

You have been given this privacy notice because you have offered to act as a keyholder for [insert name of church/building]. The Methodist Church is committed to the protection of your rights under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. This notice will inform you of your rights and provide information about how we hold and use your personal data.

2. What is personal data?

This is information, which indirectly or directly allows you to be identified via circumstances or specific details. It may include personal data such as names, addresses and dates of birth.

How do we process your data?

In compliance with the GDPR, the Methodist Church makes the following commitments about the processing of your data:

- Information will not be processed beyond what is necessary for the keyholder activities.
- Data about you will be kept up-to-date and records amended to address factual inaccuracies as soon as possible.
- We will store information securely, with the use of sufficient measures to protect your data from unauthorised access, loss or misuse.
- We will destroy data that is no longer required in a safe and appropriate manner.

We will use your personal data for the following purposes: -
(Amend or add additional processing activities to fit individual circumstances)

- To maintain an electronic record of those who are willing to act as a keyholder for [insert name of church/building], held by [insert role of person maintaining record].
- To provide contact details of keyholders to parties who may need access to the building including emergency services/maintenance contractors and users of the facilities.
- To display keyholder details in the following locations: [add details of location, website or publication, if applicable]
- To inform you of information and updates that may be relevant to your role as keyholder.

3. What is the lawful basis for processing your personal data?

- Processing is being carried out with your explicit consent so that you are able to undertake the role of keyholder within the Methodist Church.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

4. Sharing your personal data

Your data will be held in confidence and will be shared only where necessary with other members of the church or those engaging with church in order to facilitate the role and activities identified above. You will be informed if any further sharing of information is deemed necessary and your consent for this will be obtained, where appropriate. Please complete the form below to indicate your consent in relation to the use and sharing of your personal data.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

Records will be held for the period applicable to your role, as laid down by the policies and procedure of the Methodist Church. Please note, that where there is a safeguarding concern, the retention period will be 75 years.

6. Your rights and your personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data in relation to data held about you relating to safeguarding: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which is held about you by the Methodist Church
- The right to request that the Methodist Church corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Methodist Church to retain such data
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provides you with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable)
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing
- The right to object to the processing of personal data
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.
